I Spy Astronomy

A constellation guessing game.

Week of: June 24th, 2018

Constellation clue:

This constellation is named after a Greek hero known for his "12 Labors." However, in Sumerian culture, this constellation is named after the hero Gilgamesh. It's visible around 10 pm but will appear at different points in the sky depending on the month. Don't know? Scratch the back of this card for a map and the answer.

A Universe of Stories

Summer book club ideas:

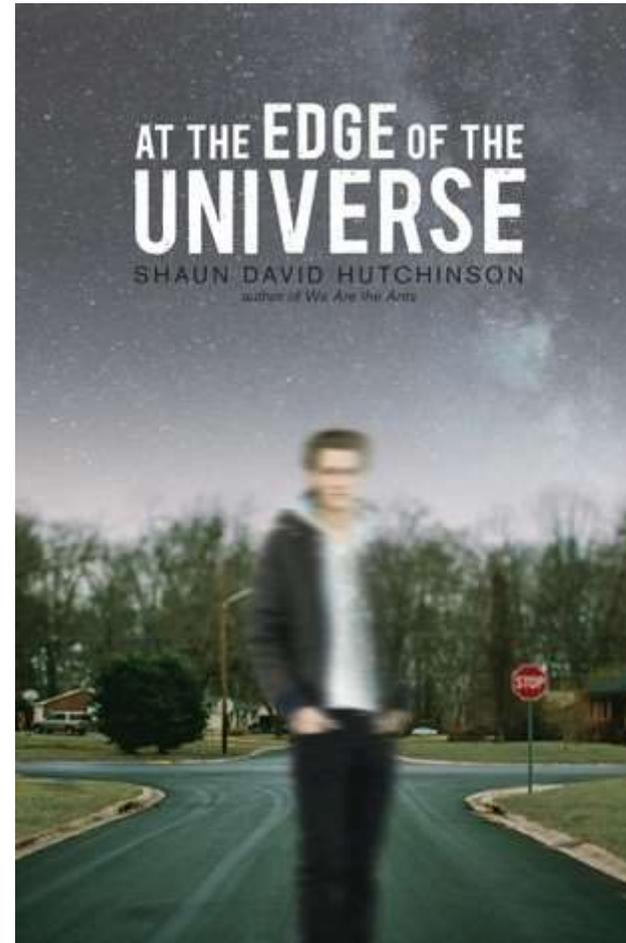

Teens in space!

Profound young adult books...

If aliens gave you a red button and told you all you have to do to save the world is push that button, would you do it? That's the dilemma Henry Denton faces and he has 144 days to decide.

As the universe shrinks, so does Tommy's memories. Until one day he disappears and no one but his boyfriend Ozzy can remember him. Can Ozzy figure out what went wrong? Can he save Tommy?

The Why

STEM/STEAM

- Critical thinking skills.
- More jobs available in future, not enough qualified to fill them.
- Bridge technology gap.
- Keep kids interested in science-related fields.
- Art is important to bridge and enhance other fields.

MAKERSPACE

- Hands-on learning.
- Problem-solving.
- Creativity.
