Key points to remember

Timely Filing - Candidates may submit qualifying papers by mail, hand-delivery, or courier service. However, qualifying items must actually be received at the Division’s physical location by the close of the qualifying period in order to be deemed timely filed. The U.S. Postal Service does not deliver mail directly to the Division of Elections. The U.S. Postal Service’s designated hours for mail pick-up do not correspond to the qualifying deadline. To ensure that the qualifying items are timely submitted, a candidate or someone on their behalf should hand-deliver directly to the Division or use a delivery service that delivers directly to the R.A. Gray Building. The Division does not accept qualifying papers via facsimile or email. Note: The R.A. Gray Building is open to the public during regular business hours.

Notarized Oaths - The following oaths require notarization: Forms DS-DE 300A (Federal Office Candidate Oath – With Party Affiliation), DS-DE 300B (Federal Office Candidate Oath – No Party Affiliation) and DS-DE 300C (Federal Office Candidate Oath – Write-In Candidate). Choose the proper Candidate Oath and carefully review that the oath has been properly notarized. Common mistakes within the notarization are: the state rather than the county entered in venue; failure to indicate physical or online notarization; notary indicates online, but is not registered with the Florida Department of State to provide online notarization; and the notary seal with expiration date and name not legible.
Name on the Ballot - Type or print your name the way you wish it to appear on the ballot on the Candidate Oath. A candidate’s name as it is to appear on the ballot may not be changed after the end of qualifying.

Contact Information - Please provide a telephone number and email address on the Candidate Oath where you can be reached during the day and after normal working hours. The Bureau will make an effort to contact you if there is a problem with your paperwork.

Qualifying Fees - Personal checks, cashiers’ checks, cash, and money orders are not valid for qualifying. Qualifying fees must be paid by a properly executed check drawn on the candidate’s campaign account. The check must be payable to the Florida Department of State, Florida Secretary of State, or Florida Division of Elections. On the qualifying check (including a starter check, ensure the face of the check specifies that the check is from the campaign account, even if it is handwritten on the check (e.g., "Campaign Account of John Doe").
