

www.floridahumanities.org

Florida
HUMANITIES

Funding Opportunities

Community Project Grants

Supports humanities programming that engages the public in thoughtful dialogue and discussion with humanities scholars.

Award: up to $10,000

Book Festival Grants

Supports events that celebrate the joy of reading, encourage thoughtful interactions between authors and their readers, and reflect on how literature conveys the human experience.

Award: up to $10,000

Florida Talks

Assists nonprofits with hosting Florida Humanities speakers who present programming about Florida's history, heritage, and culture.

Award: covers speaker fees

Museum on Main Street

Provides funding to bring Smithsonian Institution traveling exhibits to small communities across Florida.

Award: up to $5,000

English for Families

Host a templated multi-week series of classes that develops vocabulary and literacy skills for those with English as a second language.

Award: up to $8,000

Greater Good: Humanities in Academia

Supports university and college-organized humanities programs, on and off the campus, that seeks to broaden the public's awareness of the humanities.

Award: up to $10,000

Broadcasting Hope Media Grants

Provides funding for the planning and production of public media, film, or digital projects.

Award: up to $50,000 for production; up to $25,000 for development

