To be able to have a gem not too far from me would be amazing. I love supporting my people. There is enough in this world, breaking us down! I'd like to see something uplifting and inspiring. There are many, many, many youth in Florida. They should be learning about the history of African Americans. Youth of all ethnicities and colors. African American history is important. We have contributed greatly, brutally, voluntarily, and involuntarily. We deserve to be seen and heard.	2/12/2024 11:58 PM

1002	I am a black artist and have lived in Florida my whole life. The severe lack of museum and gallery or arts infrastructure in this state is having me consider moving away simply because it's really difficult to survive out here. Other states and countries seem to care about my narratives more than my home state without swift censorship. If this museum is built - do it correctly - let it be flexible, radical(for state museums), well funded , and an irrefutable staple to the community.	2/6/2024 12:51 PM
