

FLYP SUMMER READING

Active Programs

Planned, live events intended for a group of participants.

Active Program Attendance

of people who attended an active program.

Self-Directed Programs

Activities created for people to experience at their convenience.

Self-Directed Program Attendance

of people who participated in a self-directed program.

EXAMPLES
Active	Self-Directed
In-person: Guided tour conducted by library staff	In-person: Scavenger hunt worksheet for finding things in the library
Virtual: Zoom meeting that provides a live tour of the library conducted by library staff	Virtual: Scavenger hunt worksheet for finding things on website Recording of the Zoom meeting tour available on YouTube channel

Open-Ended Questions

- How do you define success?
- What did you do differently for your summer program this year?
- Please share any success stories from your summer program.
- What needs have you identified in your community, and how can the Division assist you in meeting those needs?
- Share ideas for additional materials or resources you would like the Division to provide in the future.
- (Optional) The FLYP Consultant will release a special Summer Library Program newsletter that highlights stories and creative program ideas from the summer program. Please share a brief highlight that you would like the Consultant to include.
- Is there anything else you would like to tell us?

Age Group Categories

- Early Literacy (0-5)
- School Aged (6-11)
- Young Adult (12-18)
- Adult (19 and older)
- All Ages

STATISTICS CHEAT SHEET

For FY2025-26, the percentage of total costs for the Florida Library Youth Program financed with federal money is 67%; the federal dollar amount to be spent on FLYP is $217,456. This program does not receive any non-governmental funding.

Many of these resources and programs are funded under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. Florida's LSTA program is administered by the Department of State's Division of Library and Information Services.

