 - The candidate must affirm any outstanding fines, fees, or penalties on the Candidate Oath and provide the amounts and names of entities, as applicable.
 - If the candidate wishes to use a nickname on the ballot, the candidate must complete the Affidavit of Nickname on the Candidate Oath.

Timely Filing – The U.S. Postal Service does not deliver directly to the Division of Elections. To ensure the qualifying items are timely submitted, a candidate or someone on their behalf should hand-deliver directly to the Division. The Division does not accept qualifying papers via facsimile or email. The R.A. Gray Building is open to the public during regular business hours. NOTE: Overnight deliveries to the R.A. Gray building are made only by FedEx and UPS; however, they are not made directly to the Division of Elections office in Room 316.

Qualifying Fees – Must be on a properly executed check payable to the Department of State or Division of Elections and drawn upon the candidate's campaign account. Personal checks, cashiers' checks, certified checks, cash, and money orders are not valid for qualifying. On the qualifying check (including a starter check), ensure the face of the check specifies that the check is from the campaign account, even if it is handwritten on the check (e.g., "Campaign Account of John Doe").

Notarized Oath – Oath forms require notarization. Carefully review these documents for proper notarization. Common mistakes include but are not limited to: the state rather than the county entered in venue; failure to indicate physical or online notarization; notary indicates online notarization but is not registered to provide online notarization; and the notary seal with expiration date and name is not legible due to a light stamping, or stamping on a dark line.

Name on the Ballot – On the Candidate Oath, type or print your name the way you wish it to appear on the ballot. A candidate's name as it is to appear on the ballot may not be changed after the end of qualifying. The Affidavit of Nickname must be complete for a nickname to appear on the ballot.

Contact Information – Provide a telephone number and email address on the Candidate Oath where you can be reached during the day and after normal working hours. The Bureau will make an effort to contact you if there is a problem with your paperwork.
