

SISTER CITY AGREEMENT

CITY OF ORLANDO, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND KEFLAVIK, ICELAND

It is the expressed desire of the City of Orlando, Florida, United States of America, and the City of Keflavik, Iceland to seal the bonds of friendship and mutual understanding that exist between these cities and their people.

In accordance with these wishes, the City of Orlando and the City of Keflavik do hereby agree to engage in exchanges of culture, education, sports, commerce, and other areas of mutual interest that serve to enhance the scope and depth of this relationship.

By virtue of this agreement, the City of Orlando, Florida, United States of America, and the City of Keflavik, Iceland, are and shall be known from this day forward as Sister Cities.

October 10, 1991

Orlando, Florida, United States of America

Glenda E. Hood

Glenda E. Hood
Mayor Pro Tem
City of Orlando

Ellert Eiriksson

Ellert Eiriksson
Mayor
City of Keflavik

Charles Cobb

Charles Cobb
United States Ambassador to Iceland

Vigdís Finnbogadóttir

Vigdís Finnbogadóttir
President, Iceland

